The Aspen Family/Student Portal supports the goals of walpole public schools to engage students and their families and provide opportunities for communication. Providing timely information for parents, guardians and students about student performance serves the school system's strategic plan priorities of maximizing individual student achievement and improved relationships within our community. Note to parents: Access to report cards is only available on the entire website under the Published Reports widget. Published reports are not visible on the mobile site. What information is available in this account? Student information, parent/guardian contact details, attendance information. Report Cards will appear under Published Reports on the Home PageNext Year Homeroom assignments for primary school pupils will be placed in your Aspen account in mid-August (date will be announced in June). Note: Grades and assignment features are not currently enabled for elementary students. How do I access my account? Click the Aspen icon below to access the Aspen login page. This link is specific to our district and should always be used to access the portal. You use the Chrome, Firefox, or Internet Explorer browser, but pop-up blockers must be disabled. Enter your unique login ID and password exactly as it appears at the bottom of your school message or email message. The first time you sign in, you'll be asked to choose and answer a security question for future password recovery. Pay close attention to the primary email address in this window. This is the email address communication sent to you, including password recovery and/or direct communication from teachers or school/district administrators. We strongly recommend using a Gmail account as it is compatible with our systems. Some email programs (Yahoo, Outlook, Verizon, msn, aol) have filters that restrict or block messages from systems like this. When logging into Walpole Public Schools' Aspen site, current homeroom assignments are listed under the tab for each active student. The assignments for the living room for the next school year will be updated in mid-August and will not be visible in the portal until then. Click I forgot my password on the Aspen login screen and a new one will be sent to you. If you did not reply to the ask when you've activated your account, you won't use this feature, and you'll need to call your child's school headquarters for help. Explanation Aspen: Sign in.
